

The Consortium for Research in Teacher Education is an interdisciplinary graduate student organization, which promotes rigorous quality research on the education of teachers in a variety of contexts. The consortium fosters collaboration among its members as well as external partnerships that support and influence teacher education. The organization values membership from all departments and fields of study.

Membership Form

Please provide the following information:

Full name (First, Middle Initial, Last): _____

Email Address: _____

Current Mailing Address: _____

Contact Number: (____) _____ home work cell

Department (check one)

- Curriculum & Instruction
- Educational Administration
- Educational Psychology
- Kinesiology & Health Education
- Special Education
- Other (specify _____)

Specialization area/s: _____

Anticipated graduation date (month, year) _____

Are you affiliated with any PreK-16 public, private or charter school? Explain briefly:

Briefly indicate your research interest/s:

Please check one of the five CRTE committees you may be interested in:

- Membership: responsible for establishing active membership
- Hospitality: responsible for reception at CRTE events
- Symposium: plan and host a spring symposium
- Development: fund raising
- Publications: CRTE publications

For questions, you may contact CRTE.info@gmail.com. Please submit the completed application form and $10 annual membership fee to "CRTE" and bring to SZB 428, CRTE mailbox (drop off) or mail:

Attn: CRTE, Membership Chair
Department of Curriculum & Instruction
College of Education, SZB 428
1 University Station D5700
Austin, TX 78712

In order to facilitate communication amongst CRTE members, we would like to add your name, email, department, and research interests to our online database. Please initial the appropriate box below:
<input type="checkbox"/>	Please include my info in the database.
<input type="checkbox"/>	I would prefer my info remain unpublished.